About the Company

Ganguly Apex Exports is a government-registered Indian export house based at Dankuni, West Bengal — in the immediate hinterland of Kolkata Port. We specialise in sourcing and exporting rice, spices, jute products and authentic Bengal handicrafts, drawing directly on West Bengal's position as India's rice bowl, the world's jute capital, and home to some of the country's most celebrated artisan clusters.

We are a young, compliance-first firm. Every consignment we ship is backed by complete statutory documentation, third-party quality verification and transparent communication — because we believe a new exporter earns trust not with size, but with reliability on every single order.

The firm is led by its proprietor, Mr. Subhajit Ganguly, an elected municipal councillor and public-policy professional with a strong track record in administration, data-driven planning and grievance-free service delivery — disciplines we bring directly into our export operations, documentation and buyer communication.

Why Partner With Us

- Port advantage: located ≈ 30 km from Kolkata Port and Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose International Airport — faster stuffing, lower inland haulage, competitive FOB pricing.
- Source at origin: direct procurement from rice mills, spice growers/processors, jute units and artisan clusters of West Bengal — shorter supply chains, better price control.
- Compliance-first: full Indian statutory registrations in place (see below); EU-parameter laboratory testing arranged through NABL-accredited labs on request.
- Flexible order sizes: we welcome trial orders and LCL shipments — we grow with our buyers.
- Responsive communication: single point of contact, same-day response on WhatsApp/email, documentation shared proactively at every stage.
